FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SOUTH DEKALB PROPOSES A NEW NAME FOR THEIR CITY

Decatur, GA. Concerned Citizens for Cityhood of South DeKalb Inc. (CCCSD) have chosen a name for their city – Greenhaven. Isaac Finley, the Vice Chair of CCCSD, oversaw the process that started with 20 names and was whittled down to one. Names were solicited from the public and voted on at CCCSD meetings. One name stood out because of its meaning. The name, logo and explanation are below.

In all of nature, the color GREEN is associated with sustainable life. Life that is creative, productive, inspiring and present in abundance. We chose HAVEN because it suggests a place where all life (human life in particular) is VALUED, SAFE and PROTECTED. The city of GREENHAVEN shall be a place where human creativity, accountability, productivity, economic development and responsibility lives.

Rebranding has begun. The area once known as South DeKalb is transforming into the city of Greenhaven, Georgia.
